A white canvas tote bag with two handles is hanging from a wooden easel. The bag features the text "YOUNG, WILD AND FREE" printed in a bold, black, hand-drawn font. The bag is positioned in front of a large, plain brown paper bag. To the left, a portion of a blue and white horizontally striped shirt is visible. To the right, a clear glass vase holds several flowers, including a pink chrysanthemum and a white chrysanthemum. The background is a bright, light-colored wall.
